Escola Alemã de Lisboa

A non-profit legal person under private law;

The entity holding the license issued by the Portuguese Ministry of Education that legitimizes the German School of Lisbon as a private teaching establishment;

The entity through which the school is run by a Board of Directors elected by the members of the Association in its annual General Assembly;

In charge of: contracts with German entities, hiring of staff, tuition fees setting, the maintenance of the facilities and all non-pedagogical issues.

What is the German School of Lisbon Association (GSLA)?

Who are the members of the GSL Association?

As with the 140 German schools abroad, the German School of Lisbon's management is in the hands of its school community, represented by the GSLA, and is supported by the Federal Republic of Germany both in terms of human and financial resources and guided by the GSLA statutes.

The Association members:

- Are private or legal persons who identify with the object of the Association, namely parents of students who attend or have attended the school, employees and teachers of the school, etc.
- Participate in the life and decisions of the school, based on the following rights:
 - To participate in the General Assembly and exercise their right to vote;
 - To present proposals to the General Assembly;
 - To elect, among the German School of Lisbon Association members, the bodies of the Association (Presidency, Supervisory Board, Board of Directors) and to be elected* for them (pro bono).

* Among other eligibility conditions, it is required to be proficient in German.

Benefits as an GSLA member

- At the annual General Assembly:
 - To get to know GSL better;
 - Contribute with proposals, feedback or an active role in the GSLA itself;
 - Participate in key decision.
- Receiving a newsletter four times a year with information about upcoming GSL events and news about the Association's life.

Admission process to GSLA
